

Screen
print your own T-Shirt as part of the days activities!

THE INTERNATIONAL
PRINTING MUSEUM'S

BOOK ARTS PATCH DAY

For Girls

A UNIQUE, NOT-TO-MISS EXPERIENCE FOR GIRLS 10-18 TO EXPLORE THE BOOK ARTS

VISIT PRINTMUSEUM.ORG/PATCH TO SEE UPCOMING DATES & REGISTER

Partnering with local printing industries and working book and paper artists, the Printing Museum has structured a day for participants to learn about & practice book arts through hands-on activities such as bookbinding, letterpress printing, paper making, and screen printing. Go home with fantastic keepsakes and a t-shirt!

The International Printing Museum in Carson is a world-famous facility with a working collection spanning hundreds of years.

The Day Includes

- Relief & Letterpress Printing
- Hand Bookbinding
- Screen Print a T-Shirt that you bring
- Working tour of the Printing Museum
- Explore the history of paper and papyrus
- Make your own paper by hand

Each day is limited to 90 pre-registered girls.

For dates or to register, go to www.printmuseum.org/patch

INTERNATIONAL PRINTING MUSEUM

mail@printmuseum.org • (310) 515-7166
315 Torrance Boulevard, Carson, CA 90745

These Book Arts Patch Days are generously supported by ChoosePrint.org, BurdgeCooper New World Printers, and the Printing Industries Association of Southern California.

